NOVELTY AND INVENTIVE STEP

Claims 1-93: The claimed invention broadly relates to a partially cured reinforced polymeric article comprising one or more layers of impregnated reinforcing web, characterised in that the polymeric resin and photoinitiator are selected such that partial curing can be effected in less than 120 seconds by UV radiation.

These features are disclosed in each of citations D1, D2, D3, D8* and D9*. For instance, D1 discloses prepreps that are partially curable in less than a minute and D9 discloses polyester/glass prepreps irradiated with UV for 10 seconds. It should also be noted that the claimed invention does not involve an inventive step in the light of citations D4-D7 because the use of UV radiation instead of heat for B-staging prepreps is considered to amount to common knowledge to a person skilled in the art. Hence, the claims are not novel and not inventive in the light of these citations.
